To our most valued customers,

Re: Resignation of Everflow

After much thought over the last several months, we have decided that the time has come to part ways with Everflow. Our relationship with the previous owner, David, begun nearly two decades ago. Over these good years we have shared many challenges and successes together and hit them head on.

A little over a year ago, Everflow was acquired by Paceline Equity Partners. Since then, Everflow's direction has evolved to where we see the market very differently. Because of this, the only choice was to resign as their representative.

In the coming weeks, we will continue to support the transition and we will pass on all of the open items to Everflow. Although we are now limited on what we can do, we will always be your advocate to help with any outstanding matters until they are fully resolved.

Moving forward, we are excited about the upcoming weeks to bring you our new line card and with it all of the new opportunities that await.

We want to thank you for your continued trust and support over the years. We are grateful for the relationships we've built, and we remain committed to serving you, our customer.

Sincerely,

Cary Ostera, CPMR
President
